DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN RE: HOMELAND SECURITY
INVESTIGATIONS
SUMMONS NO. ICE-HSI-MF-2022-00411

Case no. 1:22-mc-

Under Seal

APPLICATION FOR ORDER COMMANDING GOOGLE, LLC NOT TO NOTIFY ANY PERSON OF THE EXISTENCE OF SUMMONS

The United States requests that the Court order Google, LLC not to notify any person (including the subscribers and customers of the account(s) listed in the summons) of the existence of the attached summons for 180 days, until December 28, 2022.

Google, LLC is a provider of an electronic communication service, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2510(15), and/or a remote computing service, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2711(2).

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2703, the United States obtained the attached summons, which requires Google, LLC to disclose certain records and information to the United States. This Court has authority under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b) to issue “an order commanding a provider of electronic communications service or remote computing service to whom a warrant, subpoena, or court order is directed, for such period as the court deems appropriate, not to notify any other person of the existence of the warrant, subpoena, or court order.” Id.

In this case, such an order would be appropriate because the attached summons relates to an ongoing criminal investigation that is not public nor is its full extent known to the target of the investigation, and its disclosure may alert the target to the nature of the ongoing investigation. I have concerns that the target of this investigation may destroy evidence if alerted of the status of the investigation. Accordingly, there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the attached summons will seriously jeopardize the investigation or unduly delay a trial, including by giving the target an opportunity to destroy or tamper with evidence, change patterns of behavior, intimidate potential witnesses, or endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. See 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b). Some of the evidence in this investigation is stored electronically. If alerted to the existence of the summons, the subject under investigation could destroy that evidence.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests that the Court grant the attached Order directing Google, LLC not to disclose the existence or content of the attached summons for approximately 180 days, except that Google, LLC may disclose the attached summons to an attorney for Google, LLC for the purpose of receiving legal advice.

The United States further requests that the Court order that this application and any resulting order be sealed until further order of the Court. As explained above, these documents discuss an ongoing criminal investigation that is neither public nor fully known to all of the targets of the investigation. Accordingly, there is good cause to seal these documents because their premature disclosure may seriously jeopardize that investigation.

Respectfully submitted,

JANE E. YOUNG
United States Attorney

IN RE: HOMELAND SECURITY
INVESTIGATIONS
SUMMONS NO. ICE-HSI-MF-2022-00411

Case no. 1:22-mc-47-AJ

ORDER

The United States has submitted an application pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b), requesting that the Court issue an Order commanding Google, LLC an electronic communication service provider and/or a remote computing service, not to notify any person (including the subscribers and customers of the account(s) listed in the summons) of the existence of the attached summons until December 28, 2022.

The Court determines that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the attached summons will seriously jeopardize the investigation or unduly delay a trial, including by giving targets an opportunity to destroy or tamper with evidence, change patterns of behavior, intimidate potential witnesses, or endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. See 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b) that Google, LLC shall not disclose the existence of the attached summons, or this Order of the Court, to the listed subscriber or to any other person, for a period of 180 days, except that Google, LLC may disclose the attached summons to an attorney for Google, LLC for the purpose of receiving legal advice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the application and this Order are sealed until otherwise ordered by the Court.
